

Why did SECV encrypt channels?

Last Modified on 07/28/2021 10:30 am EDT

Channel lineup encryption is a necessary requirement set forth by the owners of the channels we carry. This change will result in a more secure network, a reduction in the amount of in-home visits, an increase in Internet speeds, more advanced services, and provide a better overall customer experience.
