How do I access TV Everywhere content via my computer?

To watch TV Everywhere content via your computer you will be prompted to select your cable, provider (Service Electric Cablevision) from the "Select TV Provider" list. You then will be asked to verify your TV subscription, this often means only entering the username/password corresponding to the online account.