How do I create a OnePass?

To create a OnePass, find a series you want to watch, then select Create a OnePass. The show will be instantly added to My Shows and all available episodes will be added. When you create a OnePass, you can choose options such as include recordings and streaming videos (from sources like Netflix), start from new episodes only or choose different seasons, set start and stop recording times and more to give you exactly the results you want.