

What information does the Program Information Screen contain?

Last Modified on 11/27/2024 4:06 pm EST

The Program Information Screen gives customers the details about a selection. Information may include a synopsis, the rating, channel and call letters, time slot, series information, cast, production date and duration of the program. It also gives you the ability to set an easy one-step parental lock on the channel or rating.
